October 12- November 22, 2025

Peter stands as a powerful example of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. Described as underestimated, dedicated, imperfect, inadequate, optimistic, flawed, and faithful, Peter was part of Jesus' inner circle and a leader in the early church, present at pivotal moments of Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and ascension. His story reveals key characteristics of discipleship – reluctantly willing, courageously scared, surprisingly insightful, unrealistically confident, gratefully remorseful, and passionately faithful. In Peter, we not only see the New Testament's portrait of a disciple but a reflection of ourselves, reminding us that being a disciple is lived out through both weakness and faith.
